Agreement to ground rules

I agree to the following ground rules of mediation:

- Ø Please listen to one another without interrupting.
- Ø Please speak one at a time.
- Ø Please talk respectfully to and about one another. No put-downs, name calling, or fighting.
- Ø Be open to find an agreement.
- Ø Carry out your part of the agreement.

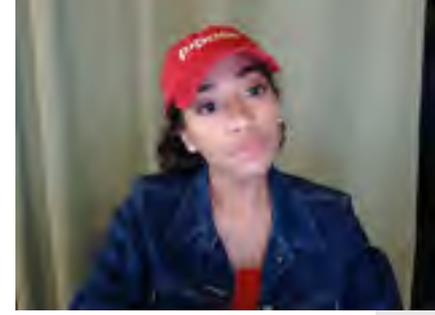

Confidentiality!

- ❑ Everything we say here, stays here unless it involves danger to self or others!
- ❑ Turn off all other electronic devices besides the computer, tablet, or phone that is used for Zoom
- ❑ State your name as you begin speaking to be sure everyone is clear about who has the floor.

Confidential!

Away we go!!

To prevent rumors from starting, if your friend asked what happened, tell them only that you solved your problem in mediation.

We understand that mediation sessions are confidential and should not be discussed with our peers.

We understand that we can return to mediation if further issues arise.
